YOUR DUTY OF DISCLOSURE and UTMOST GOOD FAITH

Before you enter into a contract of insurance with an insurer, you have a duty, under the Insurance Contracts act to disclose to the insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to the insurer's decision whether to accept the risk for insurance and if so, on what terms. A contract of insurance is a contract based on the utmost good faith, requiring each party to act towards the other party with the utmost good faith. You must disclose to us, facts known to you which are material to our consideration of your insurance risk. Leaving out pertinent information is misrepresenting your risk which could have the effect of voiding all your cover under this Policy Pack. It does not matter whether or not the insurance risk is intentionally or unintentionally misrepresented, as either circumstance will void the insurance cover.

Is there anything more you need to disclose to us? YES / NO (If yes, please provide full details and attached to this application form.)
